eko Markham Centre & Liberty Square Win the BILD Award

Liberty Development's "eko Markham Centre" and "Liberty Square" were recently awarded the Places to Grow Community of the Year Award (High-Rise Category), at the 29th Annual BILD Awards Ceremony. BILD (Building, Industry and Land Development) is Canada's largest home building industry association.

Based in Markham, Liberty Development was recognized for achieving the mandate of the Places to Grow principles. The development is estimated to achieve nearly 1,000 people and jobs per hectare – nearly five times the provincial target and 25 years ahead of the province's schedule.
